

Through the Mire

with Benny and Wendell

Andrew Faber

In this world, time acts like temperature...

...and at the bottom of the timeline, things
can get pretty cold.

The only thing that can pull through the deep are thin bands of color...

The only things simple enough to live are
"squiggles", including our two friends...!

Benny

Wendell

Benny rides a bike, and Wendell has a hot air balloon! Sweet rides!

Until one day...

A comet from the bright, blinding future comes flying down.

With no more ping-pong to play,
Benny and Wendell set out to find the source.

Each episode explores vast worlds...
